Secretary's observation; since everyone is using the web site and this information is already posted and available, why are we wasting our practice time listening to me?? I went on all of the lodges sites on the district site and they are amazing. Just go to Masons216226.weebly.com and you will find all 6 Lodge Trestle Boards listed. The district calendar is also available. If you take the time to look through each Lodge you can see some pretty amazing pictures and Masons/Masonry in action.
